

For Immediate Release

TELCO ANNOUNCES TWO 2017-2018 SPECIALS

Santa Monica, CA – Telco Productions is offering stations for 4th quarter, “An American Christmas: PJ Rasmussen and Boardwalk Jazz Band,” a one-hour special. Twenty-one of New York’s finest young musicians share the joy of the holiday season in one spectacular musical event. PJ Rasmussen and the Boardwalk Jazz Band will provide fresh and exciting renditions of America’s most beloved Christmas music along with new and original holiday tunes. With a live audience in the heart of New York City, the four vocalists, amazing rhythm section and 13 horns capture the raw excitement and energy of a big band performance. Broadcast window is November 22, 2014 to January 4, 2015, with 50-50 barter split.

Also, Telco Productions is offering for February Black History month, 2018, “For Love of Liberty,” four one-hour specials saluting the heroic contributions of African American men and women in armed conflicts throughout our nation's history—from the American Revolution to the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan. The series is hosted Halle Barry and features the voices of many distinguished actors, including Morgan Freeman, Robert Duvall, Angela Bassett, Lou Gossett Jr., and many more. Dramatic readings present first-hand accounts of African American servicemen and women, and their epic stories of courage, perseverance and personal triumph. Broadcast window is February 3 to March 4, 2018, with 50-50 barter split.

Storrs Media is handling media sales.

For more information, contact Telco Productions at www.telcoproductions.com or (310) 828-4003.