

Telco Productions, Inc.

For Immediate Release

TELCO GOES TO NATPE 2012 WITH FULL SLATE OF NEW PROGRAMS

Santa Monica, CA – Recognizing the huge interest in this upcoming presidential election year, Telco Productions, Inc. is launching the half-hour weekly show, What America Thinks with Scott Rasmussen. Affiliate stations will also receive a daily one-minute vignette produced specifically for local newscasts and featuring a new Rasmussen poll.

Telco is also launching Game Time, a weekly sports show featuring today's top professional athletes.

Telco Productions also announced the Bob Vila and Real Green one-hour home improvement block available for national syndication. Vila is generally considered America's best known fix-it, repair, and renovation handyman. Real Green is entering its third season in syndication.

Delving into the world of auctioning, Telco is launching The Best Little Auction House in Texas, a weekly half-hour featuring a flamboyant female auctioneer.

Telco also is offering several new Children's E/I half-hour weeklies: Think Big, Cooking with Cutty, Mouse in the House science show and Kids Cooking for Kids, adding to its industry leading roster of 15 current E/I shows currently broadcast across the country which include returning shows Animal Rescue, The Real Winning Edge, Dog Tales, Missing, Dragonfly TV and SWAP TV.

Visit Telco Productions, Inc. at NATPE, on the market floor at booth 509.