Dear Station,

Pursuant to the Children's Television Act of 1990, "SWAP TV" will satisfy the FCC Children's programming requirement and can be classified as either core or non-core programming. "SWAP TV" serves the educational and informational needs of children 13-16 years of age with its program content, presenting new and varied experiences, providing practical applications in everyday life. The show also provides informative segments on various sports, academic and leisure activities, allowing students to expand their horizons. The weekly series also promotes children's writing and creative skills.

To facilitate your FCC filings, episode synopses are available online at our website, www.telcoproductions.com. Also available online are testimonials from our educational advisory review board, consisting of educators and other professionals who have reviewed the program (see our website for details).

If you have any other questions, please don't hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,

Alex Paen
